

Single Situation Credit Insurance Cover

Benefit from a safety net for a particularly large contract

Our Single Contract Cover provides a flexible way to protect specific contracts from political or commercial risks.

Our Single Buyer Cover helps protect the relationships that are most important to your business. Both of these single situation covers can be combined with complementary Atradius products to create a policy most suited to your needs. As with all Credit Specialties policies, the key features and individual wording will all be unique to your policy.
